

Invasive plant control and native outplanting.

Left: Removal of exotic plants and weeds from exclusion plots. Center: Planting endemic specimens with support from the local community and public agencies through environmental education activities. Right: Structural repair work on the plots.

